

Freedom from the Crash

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.
Galatians 5:1

You, my brothers and sisters, were called to be free. But do not use your freedom to indulge the flesh; rather, serve one another humbly in love.
Galatians 5:13

1. We All Have Hang ups.

It seems to be a fact of life that when I want to do what is right, I inevitably do what is wrong.
Romans 7:21

Our hang ups are the blueprint of a life lived in slavery or a life overcome in freedom.

2. We All Have Habits.

And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing...
Hebrews 10:24-25

Desperation without grace leads to habitual despair and grace without desperation leads to habitual pride.

3. We All Have Vulnerability to Addictions.

Addiction is anything we use to get what only God can give.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? As it is written: For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered. No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:35-39
